

News from Mrs. Jackson's Room

December 1, 2012

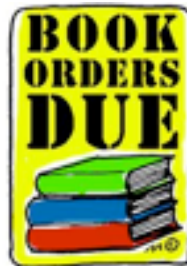

It was so nice to meet with you during conference time. If you need to meet with me before March please feel free to do so. I am always available to answer questions you may have about how your child is doing in school.

Homework is very important. I hope you read the information I sent home about how beneficial it is to read every night for at least 20 minutes. It doesn't matter what your child reads. It could be a book, magazine, or newspaper. Just get your child reading.

Book Orders

Book orders are due Dec. 7th. You can order from any and write one check. If you would like to use the items for gifts let me know and I will call you when the order arrives.

Rossman Holiday Open House

Come and help your child create a gingerbread house. We are located in the Multipurpose Room. When your child is done you can take the beautiful creation home. Then stroll the hallways and admire the pretty art on the walls, listen to music, and enjoy some refreshments.

This event begins at 2:00 pm Thursday, December 20th.

Happy
Holidays

Our classroom holiday party will be Friday, December 21st. I am asking that each child bring in a gift to exchange. Boys bring a gift appropriate for a boy and girls bring something a girl would appreciate. Some inexpensive items are cool mechanical pencils, card games, markers, stickers, etc. Try to limit your gift price to $5. Please do not put a certain child's name on the gift. We will have a random drawing. Thank you. I will provide treats for our party that day. If you would like to send something in you are welcome to do so.

Dates to remember for December:

Library is on Wednesday this month. Please remember to bring back your books.
